

Detailed Everest Mountain Overfly with Kala Patthar Landing and Breakfast at HEV Itinerary

Flight Request and Confirmation

Share your preferred travel date, the number of passengers, exact passenger weights, and baggage details with Mountain Helicopters Nepal. Our operations team will verify helicopter availability, weather conditions, airport status, and total payload to ensure the flight can be operated safely. Once everything is confirmed, you will receive your final itinerary, reporting time, meeting point, and baggage allowance, so you can prepare for a smooth and hassle-free journey.

Safety briefing and boarding

Before boarding, the crew briefs passengers on seating, restraint belts, communication signals, and in-flight procedures. If the total weight exceeds the allowed limit, some baggage will need to be stored or sent on the next helicopter flight, and an extra charge will apply.

The helicopter flies east across hills, farmland, and river valleys to Lukla, where a brief stop is made for refueling.

Flight from Lukla to the Everest Region

From Lukla, the helicopter continues over Namche Bazaar and Tengboche Monastery, climbing along the Dudh Koshi Valley toward the high peaks of the Everest region before approaching the Kala Patthar area.

Kala Patthar Landing

The helicopter flies close past the Kala Patthar ridgeline, offering dramatic aerial views of Everest, Lhotse, Nuptse, and Pumori before touching down at around 5,545 meters. Passengers step out onto the high ridge to enjoy sweeping views of Everest, Lhotse, Nuptse, and Ama Dablam, taking in one of the Everest region's most famous viewpoints from the top.

Breakfast at Hotel Everest View

After the Kala Patthar landing, the helicopter continues to Hotel Everest View at Syangboche, where passengers enjoy breakfast with panoramic views of Everest, Ama Dablam, and Thamserku before flying back to Lukla or onward along the confirmed route.

Return flight to Kathmandu

After breakfast, the helicopter retraces its route through Lukla for refuelling before returning to Kathmandu
