

H2: Itinerary of Annapurna Base Camp Helicopter Tour (from Kathmandu)

Departure from Kathmandu

5:30 AM : Hotel Pickup and Transfer to Tribhuvan International Airport

The Annapurna Helicopter Tour begins with pickup from your respected hotel in Kathmandu at around 5:30 AM. A private transfer will take you to Pokhara Airport, where our team will provide a short flight briefing, including safety instructions.

6:00 AM: Helicopter Departure from Kathmandu

Our helicopter leaves Tribhuvan International Airport by 6:00 AM, heading towards Pokhara for a refueling break which will take around 25-30 minutes.

6:30 AM: Technical Stop at Pokhara

A short landing is made at the airport at Pokhara for refueling, refueling, and to confirm weather of around 15 minutes with your options of relaxing your legs, having your coffee, using your facilities.

6:45 AM: Aerial Views of Machhapuchhre and Annapurna Range

After the technical stop and the helicopter takes off again, the height of the helicopter increases, the Machhapuchhre and Hiunchuli Mountains are majestic, offering spectacular views of two opposite mountains.

6:50 AM: Landing at Annapurna Base Camp (4,130m)

All passengers have about an hour to walk around the Annapurna Base Camp and enjoy the majestic view that is served by our nature through these beautiful breathtaking mountains.

8:00 AM: Return Flight to Pokhara for refueling

On the return flight to Pokhara, you can choose a slightly different route from the departure route. During the descent, you can enjoy new scenery and terrain and after that we land at Pokhara airport again for refueling and then head back towards Kathmandu.

9:00 AM - 9:30 AM: Depart Back to Kathmandu

We depart back to Kathmandu and land at Tribhuvan International Airport domestic terminal and our service will drop you to your respective hotels.